NAOMI REICE BUCHWALD
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Having reviewed the July 2, 2020 pre-motion letter of third-party defendant Laura C. Browne, Esq., and the July 3, 2020 letter of third-party plaintiffs Mount Olivet Church, Inc. and Aracelis Staatz in response thereto, the Court has determined that Ms. Browne may bring her motion without the necessity of a pre-motion conference. If, consistent with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, the third-party plaintiffs can assert additional allegations to cure any alleged deficiencies that Ms. Browne has raised in her pre-motion letter, then it would be in the best interest of both the parties and the Court for the third-party plaintiffs to assert them now, before briefing on the proposed motion. The third-party plaintiffs are thus granted leave to file an amended third-party complaint within two (2) weeks of this Order. If, at that time, the third-party plaintiffs have not filed an amended third-party complaint, then the parties shall confer on a briefing schedule agreeable to both sides, in which no more than sixty (60) days elapse from the filing of Ms. Browne's motion to the filing of her reply.

SO ORDERED.
